Item 6 of the provisional agenda

OFFERS BY MEMBER STATES OF STUDY AND TRAINING FACILITIES FOR INHABITANTS OF TRUST TERRITORIES

Report of the Secretary-General

1. By its resolutions 557 (VI) of 18 January 1952 and 753 (VIII) of 9 December 1953, the General Assembly invited Member States to make available to qualified students from Trust Territories scholarships, fellowships and internships for university study and post-primary and technical education.

2. The programme is administered in accordance with the procedure approved by the Trusteeship Council at its thirteenth session. 1/ Under that procedure, the Secretary-General was invited to submit to the Trusteeship Council, at least once a year, a report containing all appropriate details of the programme. The present report is the forty-second such report and covers the period from 8 May 1993 to 2 May 1994.

3. As stated in previous reports, prior to December 1992 11 Member States had made scholarships available under this programme. Those Member States were the following: Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Indonesia, Italy, Mexico, Pakistan, Philippines, Poland, Tunisia, Russian Federation and Yugoslavia.

4. A description of the scholarships offered by Member States is contained in the eighteenth report submitted to the Trusteeship Council at its thirty-sixth session. 2/

5. Up-to-date information concerning the scholarships made available under the programme, as well as the extent to which awards had been made to, and utilized by, students from the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, was requested by the Secretary-General in a note dated 22 March 1994 addressed to Member States that had offered scholarships in previous years.

6. As at 2 May 1994 no information had been received from Member States concerning scholarships made available to students from the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

7. Information on scholarships made available under the programme is included in the twenty-eighth and earlier editions of Study Abroad (1991/92, 1992/93, 1993/94, 1994/95), published by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). Copies of Study Abroad are sent to the Administering Authority and to United Nations information centres.

Item 7 of the provisional agenda

DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION ON THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE INTERNATIONAL TRUSTEESHIP SYSTEM IN THE TRUST TERRITORY OF THE PACIFIC ISLANDS

Report of the Secretary-General

1. Pursuant to Trusteeship Council resolution 36 (III) of 8 July 1948 and General Assembly resolution 754 (VIII) of 9 December 1953, the Secretary-General and the Administering Authority of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands continued to cooperate during the period under review in disseminating information to the Trust Territory on the aims and objectives of the International Trusteeship System and of the United Nations. The present report covers the period from 1 May 1993 to 30 April 1994.

2. The Department of Public Information of the Secretariat distributed information materials to some 100 organizations and individuals in the Trust Territory, both directly and through its information centres, primarily the United Nations Information Centre at Tokyo. Among the materials sent to the Trust Territory by the Department were the documents of the Trusteeship Council, press releases covering meetings of the Council and the report of the United Nations Visiting Mission to Observe the Plebiscite in Palau, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, November 1993 1/ as well as taped radio, video and film programmes (see also annex I).

3. The Department of Public Information produced eight press releases each in the English and French languages dealing with the work of the Trusteeship Council during the past year. The press releases featured all the proceedings of the Trusteeship Council meetings held during the review period. The messages of the Secretary-General and the President of the Trusteeship Council on the occasion of United Nations Day were transmitted to the Territory from the Information Centre at Tokyo as a press release.

4. The Department of Public Information aimed at enlightening the people of the Trust and Non-Self-Governing Territories about their right to self-determination through some radio programmes and posters disseminated to those Territories. Several radio programmes dealing with the work of the Special Political and Decolonization Committee (Fourth Committee) were also disseminated to the Territories. Another programme entitled "Right of self-determination: a historical review" was produced in the Arabic language. Other programmes dealt with issues discussed at the regional seminar of the Special Committee held in June 1993, 2/ with a view to heightening the awareness of political options available to the peoples of the small-island Non-Self-Governing Territories concerned under General Assembly resolutions 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960 and 1541 (XV) of 15 December 1960.

5. In its September 1993 issue, the UN Chronicle featured an article entitled "Trusteeship Council mission to observe the eighth plebiscite in Palau". The 1993 issue of the Yearbook of the United Nations, which is under production, devotes one chapter each to questions relating to decolonization and the International Trusteeship System.

6. In acccrdance with a decision taken by the Trusteeship Council at its 1700th meeting, on 14 May 1993 (see T/PV.1700), the secretariat of the Visiting Mission to Observe the Plebiscite in Palau, on behalf of the Department of Public Information, distributed questionnaires to some 100 addressees to help evaluate the effectiveness of the dissemination and use of United Nations information materials in Palau. That distribution was designed to supplement earlier direct mailing by the Department of the same questionnaire to the identical list of recipients, from whom only five responses had been received. The questionnaire requested information as to the purpose and structure of the responding organization, subjects of interest to the organization and what use was made by the organization of the United Nations publications it received. As a result of the distribution of questionnaires, the Department of Public Information received 15 more replies, bringing the total number of replies received to 20. Respondents were from a variety of institutions and ministries, including the Ministries of Health, Foreign Affairs Administration and Education, the National Congress of Palau and the Department of State and Cultural Affairs, as well as from schools and research institutes, associations dealing with legislative and labour issues and a radio station (see annex II). The results of the survey were shared with the United Nations Information Centre at Tokyo.

7. The Department of Public Information, through its Anti-Apartheid, Palestine and Decolonization Section, mailed information materials directly to respondents to the survey. The materials included the following: An Agenda for Peace; report of the United Nations Visiting Mission to Observe the Plebiscite in Palau, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, November 1993; a statement of the Secretary-General to the Special Committee (press release SG/SM/4924 of 11 February 1993); a poster on decolonization: "Complete Decolonization by the Year 2000: Freedom to Choose"; Basic Facts about the United Nations (1993); Human Development Report (1993), a publication of UNDP; a UNICEF annual report, State of the World's Children (1993); and an information kit on the Global Conference on the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States entitled "Small Islands, Big Issues"; an information kit entitled "1994: International Year of the Family"; a brochure issued in 1993 entitled "End Discrimination against Women"; a fact sheet on the Fourth World Conference on Women; a note by the Secretary-General on Prevention and control of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS); and a fact sheet and focus article on the elections in South Africa. In addition, the Department mailed specific materials, such as the 1993 World Economic Survey and statistical yearbooks on demographics and trade, to reflect areas of interest indicated by respondents to the above-mentioned questionnaire.

Sixty-first session
Item 13 of the provisional agenda

AMENDMENT OF THE RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL

Note verbale dated 9 May 1994 from the Permanent Mission of France to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

The Permanent Mission of France to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and has the honour to inform him that, further to the note it received on 5 May 1994, France wishes to add an item to the provisional agenda of the sixty-first session of the Trusteeship Council (T/1979). The additional item would be entitled: "Amendment of the rules of procedure of the Trusteeship Council".

France believes that, in view of the forthcoming accession to independence of Palau, it is necessary to draw the appropriate inferences regarding the resulting reduction in the activities of the Trusteeship Council. In fact, the question of Palau is the only item currently on the agenda of that body. The Trusteeship Council took a similar decision in 1961 when it amended its rules of procedure following the withdrawal from its agenda of the last of the African questions before it. It would therefore be desirable that the Council do the same at this juncture.
